MATTHEW 22:1-10

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, “The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, ‘Tell those invited: “Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast.’” Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, ‘The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.’ The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests.”

1. What happens when the king’s servants gather those invited to the wedding feast?
2. Who are the people in your life sharing the invitation to Heaven with you?
3. What would you say if you received this invitation?

THE MASS BOX

1. We're making a wedding place mat that we can also use at home. Draw a place setting or other decorations on your place mat.

2. Use the food stickers to add to your place mat. What kinds of food do you think would be at a wedding feast?

3. Get an adult's help with this step! Peel the contact paper backing off. Place the contact paper sticky side up on the table. Be very careful not to let it fold on itself or it will stick together.

4. Put the place mat on one side of the contact paper. Fold the contact paper over to seal in the other side. You can use scissors to cut the edges if you like, or leave the extra contact paper as a border.

With whom in your life can you share about the good news of Jesus Christ? Who would you invite to the wedding feast?
