2 COR 5:14-17, MARK 4:35-41

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him. A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

Q.

1. Did Jesus come for you and be a sacrifice for you personally? Does He call you by name?

THE MASS BOX

1. On the chalkboard, write your name with your piece of chalk. As Jesus cared about his disciples when they were afraid, He also cares about you.

2. With the glue pen, put little dots of glue around the frame of the chalkboard. Press down the seashells to the glue.

3. After the glue dries, hang your chalkboard up to remind you that names are important, and that Jesus knows YOU, by name!

Q Why are we using seashells to decorate this craft?

A The seashells remind us of Jesus' time on the boat with His disciples. Although they were afraid, and their faith was challenged, Jesus did not leave them and He reminded them how He loved them.
