MARK 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, “The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise.” But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him.

They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, “What were you arguing about on the way?” But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Taking a child, he placed it in the their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me.”

Q

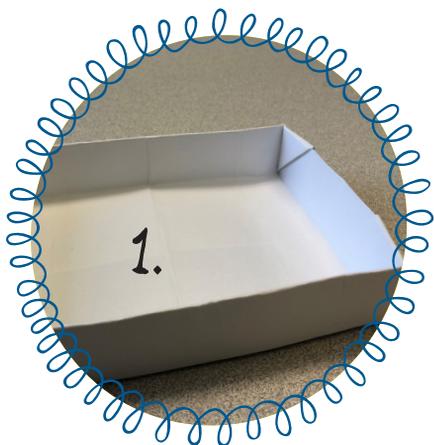

1. How does Jesus teach us how to receive Him and His Father?

A

1. We must come like children to Jesus’ feet. We should treat even the littlest and the poorest among us with respect.

THE MASS BOX NUG

1. Following the printout directions, fold one of your shimmery papers into a tray.

*We've provided extra paper for you to practice with, so don't worry if you accidentally make a mistake!

2. Use glue dots to secure the silver doily in the center of your serving tray.

3. Use the stickers and (optionally) your markers at home to decorate the tray.

Q How does this serving tray remind us of today's Gospel?

4. Use the tray to serve your family and friends.

A The disciples argued about which of them was best, but Jesus came to be the King who serves others. Serving people shows love. Our serving tray will help us remember to serve others just like Jesus did.
