1 CORINTHIANS 12:12-30

Brothers and sisters: As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

Now the body is not a single part, but many. If a foot should say, "Because I am not a hand I do not belong to the body", it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. Or if an ear should say, "Because I am not an eye I do not belong to the body", it does not for this reason belong any less to the body. If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? But as it is, God placed the parts, each one of them, in the body as he intended. If they were all one part, where would the body be? But as it is, there are many parts, yet one body. The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you," nor again the head to the feet, "I do not need you." Indeed, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are all the more necessary, and those parts of the body that we consider less honorable we surround with greater honor, and our less presentable parts are treated with greater propriety, whereas our more presentable parts do not need this.

But God has so constructed the body as to give greater honor to a part that is without it, so that there may be no division in the body, but that the parts may have the same concern for one another. If one part suffers, all the parts suffer with it; if one part is honored, all the parts share its joy.

THE MASS BOX

1. Write your name on the line provided. Then inside of the large square, you can draw a self portrait, a picture of your family, or your friends! This page will be the front cover of your book.

2. Fold the cardstock sheet in half, so that the skeleton ends up behind your front cover. Open the cardstock again, then, line up the transparency sheet so that the organs are on top of the skeleton.

3. Next, fold over the transparency paper so the muscle layer lines up over the skeleton and organs. Press down firmly to make a strong crease in the paper.

4. Put a tape sticker half on the cardstock, half on the transparency paper, right overtop the folds. Put one near the top of your book, and one the bottom. Just how all the different parts of your body work together, the different people in the body of Christ do the same for His glory!

Do you know the names for the different parts of your body? Try labeling them!
